UNITED NATIONS PREAMBLE

We, the peoples of the United Nations

Determined to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and

To reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal right of men and women and of nations large and small, and

To establish conditions under which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law can be maintained, and

To promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom, and for these ends

To practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors, and

To unite our strength to maintain international peace and security, and

To insure, by the acceptance of principles and the institution of methods, that armed force shall not be used, save in the common interest, and

To employ international machinery for the promotion of the economic and social advancement of all people, have resolved to combine our efforts to accomplish these aims.

Accordingly, our respective governments, through representatives assembled in the city of San Francisco, who have exhibited their full powers found to be in good and due form, have agreed to the present Charter of the United Nations and do hereby establish an international organization to be known as the United Nations.

WE VISIT THE HOME OF THE U. N.

Class Trip of 1950

The Juniors and Seniors of 1950 chartered a bus to New York City. One of the first things on the schedule was a National League ball game; part of the group went to the Roxy Theater. Journeying to the Statue of Liberty, visiting China Town, climbing the Empire State Building, touring the Bowry, and viewing the "Rockettes" at Radio City (Bud, Glen, Doyle, and Art just why weren't you there?) were the "highlights" of the class trip. We arrived home, having had a lot of fun, but very tired!

The Little Assembly

THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY is a special part of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY just as the Seniors are a special part of the high school student body. The larger organizations of the U. N. rely on different commissions, committees, and agencies to accomplish their plans. In the same way, the teachers assign different tasks and offer different privileges to the Seniors.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1951, being of sound mind and strong bodies, realize that we are approaching the end of our high school career and for this reason do hereby make, publish, and declare our last will and testament.

To the faculty we leave our sincerest thanks and appreciation for the help and guidance which they have given to us during our school years. We hope that in future years they will recall the days when our class was under their supervision.

John Market wills his luck to drive a new car around in his Senior year to Kenny Zimmerman. (Keep a fire extinguisher handy, Kenny).

Gloria Springer wills her pleasure of taking cute flash bulb pictures to Joann Ensign.

Russell Stoller wills his unusual technique of getting along with the girls, especially two at the same time to Roy Glass. You have a good start, Pete.

Jeanne Griffis wills her time to stew over her share of the next issue to HAVILOOK to some Junior who just doesn't have the time. (And yet never studies in study hall).

Gerald Laukhuf wills his trumpet to anybody who can play it as well as he, or to the one who can even find it.

Delores Keysor wills her extra height to Becky Akom. Will you accept it, Becky?

Lloyd Lehman leaves to Gene Davis and Dorothy Funk the responsibility of having a good Bookkeeping class next year.

Gloria Stiebeling wills her last period study hall to a librarian who has a crush on some underclassman.

Glen Pease wills his effort to sleep on a class trip to Lyle Stoller. He hopes you can accomplish it, Lyle.

Phyllis Davis wills her ability to acquire a diamond during her last term to Louise Gudakunst.

Harold Wenninger wills his eating from the Home-Ec girls to anyone who thinks he is healthy enough to survive.

Betty Finnegan wills to Barbara Fast the problem of all the boys of the class knowing her business and using it for daily gossip.

John Fast would like to leave to LeRoy Shaw the problem of how to whisper and not get caught while Rex is checking attendance. The only way John ever solved it was by spending noons in the office.

Joy Mae Rhinehalt wills her figure to anyone who likes diets.

Bud Laukhuf wills the secret of popularity to Bill Hoaglin. He will tell you some Tuesday evening at 9:16.

Alice Williamson wills her ability to get acquainted with kids in New York to anybody who isn't afraid of falling out a hotel window.

Luther Hofacker wills his desire to go to Antwerp to anyone who can find special interests.

Ireta Decker wills fourteen pounds to Colleen Keysor. Do you really think you can spare it, Ireta?

Eleanor Hoaglin wills her way of getting along with the teachers to Bud Decker. You better use it, Bud.

Class History

Back in 1939 thirty-three frightened first-graders started their long journey through the Haviland-Scott School. It was quite an experience to begin our school years in the same way as it is to be leaving the teachers, friends, and classrooms which most of us have been acquainted with since that first day. We advanced through the lower grades under the supervision of Mrs. Gantt, Miss Bidlack, Mrs. Ptak, and Mr. Jenkins, and found ourselves ready for the seventh and eighth grades, which appeared very interesting.

We entered high school as a class of twenty-two. Miss Triplett had the responsibility of being our class advisor. The following officers were elected: Bud Laukhuf, President; Jeanne Griffis, Vice-President; and Lloyd Lehman, Secretary-Treasurer. During our Freshman year the main projects of the class were running the candy stand at home basketball games and skating parties.

As a Sophomore class of twenty-one members, we had Rex Scarbrough for our advisor and Gerald Laukhuf, President. John Market was Vice-President, and Harold Wenninger, Secretary-Treasurer. The year passed rapidly, and before we knew it, we were registered as Juniors and facing the problem of raising money for a class trip. Our goal, which we reached, was to take both Junior and Senior classes to New York City. We raised our money by bake sales, selling greeting cards, being in charge of the candy stand, and by presenting our class play, "Love is Too Much Trouble." Those in charge who helped us to accomplish this were: Miss Daubert, class advisor; Gerald Laukhuf, President; Bud Laukhuf, Vice-President; and Harold Wenninger as Secretary-Treasurer. This was an enjoyable year for all of us, and the following year was to prove the same.

As Seniors, we entered into our busiest year of school. Miss Daubert was our class advisor during this eventful year. We decided to edit this HAVILOOK, an experience which has indeed been interesting. Mr. Ensign's helpful assistance has been very beneficial to us in this task. With the presentation of our class play, "New Fires", followed by Baccalaureate and Commencement, we realized that the last year of our high school days was drawing to a close. These school years have been enjoyed by all of us, and we know that the time which we have spent at our school will help us face the problems that we will meet in future days.

Stephen teaches his fomly to appreciate "The Simple Life."

Class Prophecy

LOOK! What is that on the television screen? LISTEN! What is the master of ceremonies saying? A reunion of the Haviland-Scott 1951 graduating class! Everyone is seated around a large table, and I see that the master of ceremonies is going to interview each member.

That must be Bud Laukhuf who is approaching. Bud says that he is married and president of the Gardner-Bender Greeting Card Company. He advises everyone to send cards on all occasions.

Next is that brilliant member of the class, Harold Wenninger. Harold, a determined bachelor, is now President of Columbia University. Congratulations to him! (Better watch that, IKE EISENHOWER, he is stealing your job).

As we move around the table, we see Betty Finnegan. She has just returned from Hawaii where, as a nurse, she was working in an Army Hospital. A patriotic girl, of course, it might be nice too.

Seated next to her is Joy Rhinehalt, Mrs. America of 1966. She won the honor on beauty and making apple dumpling with apples from her tree in Van Wert.

Let us find where some of the middle-aged gents are now located. It seems that three have entered the athletic world. John Fast is now coaching the Zollner Pistons at Fort Wayne, while Russell Stoller is fast becoming the second George Mikan. Lloyd Lehman entered into the baseball field and is now the owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Luther Hofacker is sitting next to Lloyd and is now telling us he is managing the well-known Chicago Roller Rink. His special star, who appears every night, is the former Miss Gloria Stiebeling. She received her training at the famous Ft. Brown Skating Rink. The secretary of the large organization is Ireta Decker. Ireta is quite efficient because of her experiences in bookkeeping, typing, and consumers at dear old Haviland High.

I see that Phyllis Davis is also present. She is now working at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel where she is hostess of the main dining room.

Continuing on around the table, we discover that both John Market and Glen Pease are owners of garages. Glen has remained in Haviland and has a prosperous business. John and wife are located in South Bend, Indiana, where they are extremely happy.

The master of ceremonies is now talking to Delores Keysor, who is star player on a professional women's teams in Miami, Florida. The weather and the beach agree quite well with Delores.

As time is running short, we will just listen as he continues around the table.

Gloria Springer is teaching school in Cleveland, Ohio. She is soon to become head of all the city schools.

Eleanor Hoaglin is now in Washington, D. C. teaching Margaret Truman how not to flat when singing. Eleanor is meeting some very famous people and is taking advantage of it.

Alice Williamson has for the previous year been directing an orchestra in New York City. The Roxy and Radio City Theaters are having a law suit to determine her next contract.

Jeanne Griffis is running a nursery for children in Chicago and is saying that plans are made for extensive remodeling. She seems quite content and exceptionally happy.

As we complete the circle, Gerald Laukhuf is seated next to Bud. Gerald is now playing in Spike Jones' Orchestra. He is planning to leave the entertainment world soon and retire to his huge cattle ranch near Dallas, Texas.

The master of ceremonies is now stating that this special program is completed, and I believe I will just turn the television set off for this evening. I am certainly glad to learn where the different ones of that class are fifteen years after their graduation.

The Security Council

The SECURITY COUNCIL of the United Nations compares to the school board and the faculty of our school. The responsibilities and decisions lie in both these groups. In the SECURITY COUNCIL a veto by the one nation prohibits further action on a problem. This is to secure co-operation which also plays an important part among our school board, teachers, and students of the school.

World Health Organization

The purpose of this agency is to improve the health of people anywhere in the world. This project is being carried out in many different ways. In our country we have the advantage of being able to take part in sports and organizations which are beneficial to ourselves and others. We should appreciate our chance to participate in and enjoy these numerous American athletic opportunities.

OUR SEASON

During the basketball season many fans watched exciting games, including non-league games with Paulding, Sherwood, Union, and Rockford, in addition to the regular twelve county games. The boys also took part in the Holiday Tournament at Van Wert. Beaverdam, Rockford, Willshire and Haviland were entered in this tourney. Haviland won their first game with Willshire, but was outscored by Beaverdam the second night of the tournament.

The county tournament was held at the Paulding High School and was played by double elimination. In the tournament the Haviland players met Oakwood, Payne, Latty, and Oakwood. They won their way to playing Latty in the championship game. After playing hard and making a close and exciting game, they were only beaten by three points and were to return on Saturday night to play Oakwood again. This game Oakwood won 55-42. It was nice work, boys, whether we won or lost. You should be congratulated on your high spirit, teamwork, and co-operation. All through the year you showed good sportsmanship and this plays an important part in making any game enjoyable. Your fans also received proof of their good attitude by the school being awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy at the county tournament. Once again, congratulations for an interesting season!

The managers of our team did their work well this year. They were ready all the time to help the boys in any way. You could always feel the team was well cored for by the boys in white. Thanks for doing your job well!

Our Coach

Rex Scarbrough, the Athletic Coach, has led many of our teams on to victory. Although the team wasn't at the very top this year, they gave us a very good showing. We know the teams have a great share in being victorious, however, without the careful supervision of our coach, it would not be such a well organized team. Thanks, Rex, for doing a very fine job!

Department of Social Affairs

This division of the United Nations guides the work of various commissions seeking to improve the living standards of all the peoples of the world just as the many activities in our school help us to become acquainted with and understand the people about us. The privilege of having this contact with others will enable us to have a better outlook on life and world situations.

Who's Who

Patty and Darwin don't give a darn,
They're always good for spinning a yarn.

Colleen and Russ are active in sports,
As you can see, on our basketball courts.

Jeanne and Harold are of a brilliant descent,
They're the ones getting one-hundred percent.

Betty and Gerald, in our activities, appear
When a job's to be done, they're always near.

Bud, with citizenship, hasn't a flaw,
He's the very best fellow you ever saw.

HAVILAND-SCOTT CHAPTER OF THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OF SECONDARY SCHOOLS

For many years the athletes have received the greatest share of recognition in our school. This year the faculty saw a need for shining the spotlight more toward the students with scholastic ability. For this reason a chapter of the N. H. S. was organized. The officers of this chapter are President, Harold Wenninger; Vice-President, Jeanne Griffis; and Secretary, Joy Rhinehalt.

The election of students for candidacy is made each year from the Junior and Senior classes after mid-term exams by the high school faculty. At that time Sophomores can be elected to probationary membership. These members on probation are permitted to vote but not wear the pin of the organization. They are eligible to become full members at the beginning of the second semester of their Junior year.

A special service was held on April 6 at which the induction ceremony was performed. The President of the Community Club presented the pins of the chapter to fifteen Juniors and Seniors. Seven Sophomores received recognition as probationary members. These members of the present chapter were selected on the following basis:

SERVICE

Willingness to render any service to the school, or community when called upon.

Readiness to show courtesy by assisting visitors, teachers, and students.

Attend all classes regularly and on time.

LEADERSHIP

Demonstrates leadership in class room or organization and in promoting school activities.

Successfully holds school offices or positions of responsibility.

Is thoroughly dependable in any responsibility he accepts.

Exemplifies the qualities and attitudes which are a silent influence on others for good.

CHARACTER

Demonstrates highest standards of attitude toward honesty and reliability.

Constantly exemplifies desirable qualities of personality. (Cheerfulness, friendliness, neatness, poise, stability).

Co-operates by complying with school regulations.

Upholds principles of morality and ethics.

SCHOLARSHIP

Average of B for three semesters previous to candidacy and retained throughout years in the chapter.

If a member's average or other qualifications fall below standard, he agrees to withdraw and turn in his pin.

Our music department under the direction of Mrs. Oetzel has been an active and enjoyable part of our school this year. The different musical groups entertained at Farmer's Institute, County Teachers' Meeting, Trustees' Banquet, and School Chapels. It is planned that all three large groups, consisting of the Mixed Chorus, Boys' Glee Club, and Girls' Glee Club, will take part in the music contest at Ada on April 14. The contest for smaller groups is being held at Lima. The boys' octette, girls' trio, girls' triple trio and a mixed quartet will take part in this contest.

The students taking part in the different divisions of the musical department realize that success comes only with co-operation, willingness to work, and deep concentration. One of the times when these requirements are most needed is while preparing for district contest. Last year the Girls' Glee Club won a superior rating at Ada and received an excellent rating at the state contest at Springfield. We hope that the members of all the groups can continue showing this love for music.

We wish to thank Mrs. Oetzel and those who make it possible for this training.

Band

Due to many unsolved problems it was necessary for the HAVILOOK staff to use the band picture of last year. When the pictures for the Annual were to be taken the polio epidemic was striking our community, making it a task to have all people concerned present at one time. We have band on Friday, the only day of the week that Mr. Hickman, our instructor, is present.

There is a beginner's band consisting of members from any of the classes. Anyone interested in playing an instrument was urged to join.

Throughout the year our senior band took part in different activities. It participated in a county clinic led by Director Bob Whitaker, of Montpelier High School. Basketball fans enjoyed band music during intermissions. This group presented a program at the School and Community Program. A clarinet quartette and a saxophone soloist competed at the district Music Festival at Lima.

Members of this year's Senior band are as follows: CLARINET—Patty Decker, Anita Sperry, Charles Rodman, Delores Hockenberry, Nancy Zielke, Barbara Brian, Ruby Hockenberry, Colleen Keysor, Alice Williamson. CORNET—Gerald Laukhuf, John Fast, Barbara Fast, Paul Stiebeling, Lynn Mefferd. SAXOPHONE—Raymond Daniel, Joan Ensign, Janet Mohr. BARITONE—Jeanne Griffis, Dorothy Radabaugh. FRENCH HORN—Eleanor Abbott. TROMBONE—Gloria Stiebeling, Gale Weisman. TUBA—Richard Zielke. E FLAT ALTO HORN—Karen Gudakunst. BELLS—Lois Williamson, Betty Finnegan. DRUMS—Roy Glass, Noreda Keysor, Ireta Decker, Maxine Pond, Janice Parker.

The Community Club

The Community Club, an organization of fifty-eight women of our community, not only makes it possible for these ladies to enjoy together their meetings and other social events, but takes an active part in providing financial aid to our school. Some of these helpful activities which the club sponsors are to hold a reception for the teachers and to serve the Athletic Banquet. Each year at Christmas time this organization furnishes a Christmas tree for the school and buys gifts for the needy children.

This year the club gave money to help buy instruments for the band and helped the Board of Education buy a large table saw for the shop. At the present time the club is planning to raise money to buy a new piano for the school.

Another project which was taken up by the club this year and is to be continued in future years was to buy the pins for the National Honor Society.

We, of the HAVILOOK, want to thank the club for the help it furnishes to the school, and we want the club to know that its presence is appreciated throughout the student body.

Harold Hastings writes a play for the annual alumni party about his father's boss and family. Harold is frantic, after being told by one of his classmates that this family will attend the party. Harold persuades Bill, one of the actors in the play, to appear as if he has been badly injured in an auto accident and will be unable to appear in the play. Bill agrees to do this if Harold will lend him his brother's car. Finally, after Bill and Harold are almost arrested, a movie star and a talent scout arrive, everything eventually turns out satisfactorily for Harold.

UNITED NATIONS PREAMBLE

We, the peoples of the United Nations

Determined to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and

To reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal right of men and women and of nations large and small, and

To establish conditions under which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law can be maintained, and

To promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom, and for these ends

To practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors, and

To unite our strength to maintain international peace and security, and

To insure, by the acceptance of principles and the institution of methods, that armed force shall not be used, save in the common interest, and

To employ international machinery for the promotion of the economic and social advancement of all people, have resolved to combine our efforts to accomplish these aims.

Accordingly, our respective governments, through representatives assembled in the city of San Francisco, who have exhibited their full powers found to be in good and due form, have agreed to the present Charter of the United Nations and do hereby establish an international organization to be known as the United Nations.
